Morning Chapel C. M. E. Church, Corner Third and Crump Sts. Rev. M. H. Spencer, D. D., Pastor. Morning Chapel was at her best

all day Sunday. Promptly at 9:30 Supt. Langston was at his post and opened the Sunshine Sunday school with all officers and teachers present. The elite class with Mrs. L. R. Finley, teacher has for five Sundays held the twenty mile team financial banner. You are welcome to Sunday school every Sunday morning at 9:30.

The pastor preached a powerful sermon in the morning service to a full house and administered the Lord's supper, assisted by Rev. A. L. Dotson.

Sunday evening at 8:30, the great attractive Epworth League went over the top in their rally. After listening to a well prepared program full of Vim and Spice from our Visitors from St. Andrews Chapel League and the old standbys the financial forces were lined up for the great battle. Major Della Pope, McClary, Wooten, Jordan and Franklin threw their heavy artillery in line for the greatest battle ever fought in Morning Chapel. After the smoke had cleared away Pope stood the mighty Conqueror raising $8.00 and capturing the banner. Total amount raised $29.23. The rally will close Sunday with some $8.00 out to report. The Epworth League has taken on new life with the coming home of our young ladies from schools and has grown to be the center of attraction ever afternoon at 6 o'clock. Get the habit of coming to the Epworth League every Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.

The pastor and delegates will leave Wednesday for Salina to the District Conference.

You are a stranger in our service only once and you are always a welcome visitor in all our services.

Sunday school opened at 9:30 a. m., after each class had finished, a nice program was rendered by the little folks it was enjoyed to the highest. Supt. Taylor reports that $315.00 was raised during the Sunday school carnival last week. Eleven o'clock service, subject "Obedience." So many good things were said during the service until we did not want the pastor to close, two persons joined the church. St. James made visit to branch located on White street. Pastor conducted services at 3:30 o'clock. This little Sunday school raised $301.05 in the $4,000 rally.

This church is a branch of St. James and we want all the members to visit it. B. Y. P. U. at 5:30 and at 7:30 night service began and the pastor was at his post regardless the $4,000 rally he preached his sermon. I am sure that we all feel proud to know that we have reached the $4,000 mark and several have not reported as yet thank God. The play given by the dramatic club the night of the 8th at St. James was highly appreciated by all too much cannot be said about this play (East Lynn) they all played their parts well.

To the members of St. James, if you want to know what your church is doing you must read the Dallas Express and the Hornet. Watch for the big carnival, to be given by St. James.

Colored Musicians Render Folk Songs.
An unusually good program of folk songs was given at the Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday evening by the members and choir of Allen's Chapel A. M. E. The voices of several of the singers were of particular merit, and the audience received them well. The program was given under the management of Mrs. M. E. Thompson, and Mrs. M. E. Moore. In addition to the solos and several choruses, two readings were given. A large audience attended. "Fort Worth Record." The above is greatly appreciated. Banker, eminent jurists, musicians and the elite of both races, citizens hyphen with erudition and musical ability attended the great Musical Symposium given by the Junior choir of Allen Chapel supported by the United Christian Choral club. Mrs. E. J. Guinn, Mrs. Corine Jackson and Mrs. N. B. Scott, were the members of the Senior department of the church, when we speak of Mrs. N. B. Scott, it is to be remembered that musical prodigy, the once Miss Beatrice Slater and yet she has not lost any of her former melody in song. Mrs. Jackson, sings a deep contralto. Mrs. Guinn is too well known for comment. While among the young people miss Sedie Peterson, Miss Susie Thompson, Miss Ethel McGar, Miss Maggie Smith, Miss Josie Bell Moore, Miss Ida Bell Williams, Miss Eloise Jones and Miss Edie wear, were stars on the program with leading parts, but it must be remembered that Miss Corine Brown, rendered a most difficult song, also Miss Fay Burt, must come in for honors and as to the reading of recitals, Miss Evelyn Tatum, and Miss Bernice Brashgar, capped the climax. Then in grandeur appears Miss Christine Burt, Miss Inonia Knox, and Miss Lucile Manning, these all played well their part. While Miss Hazel Harvey, the musical wonder played the piano, supported by the emergency all-round pianist, Miss Ethel McGar. Our Sunday service was great. The pastor preached in the morning and the Annual sermon for the Mosaic Templars of America at 3 p. m., and at night expatiated upon the hardest text in the Bible to be complied with viz: "But I Say Unto You Love Thy Enemies ten persons joined the church. Next Sunday will be a red lettered day, all are invited to enjoy the services in the Sunday school and the church. The weekly boards are having full attendance, thereby creating greater interest in the work of the church. Next Sunday, Doctor L. B. Kinchion will preach. Don't fail to hear this great logician.
